IN MEMORIAM

Individually and collectively, the Class of 1987 shares the loss of two special friends — Brad Davock and Scott Mather. Although they are gone forever from our physical world, the happiness they gave us will remain forever in our memories. They are deeply missed.

In Memory of Brad Davock
Member of the National Honor Society

Although we hardly heard from you,
We saw what you went through.
You never once gave up your fight —
The easier thing to do.
You showed us just what life could mean
And never to let go.
Your courage through your hardest times
Taught more than you could know.
We'll miss you now that you have gone,
But always will we care,
And learn from what you've shown to us
Your memory always here.

In Memory of T. Scott Mather
Member of the Drama Club and Tennis team;
active in his church

Beyond your wall of shyness
That we seldom could get through,
You kept inside, well-hidden,
Another side of you.
A side expressing feeling,
Compassion, pride and wit —
Your acting showed that side of you
We seldom could depict.
And sadly do we miss you now,
And wish that you were here.
To share these happy times with us.
And know how much we care.

DEDICATION MS. LYNNE SALVADOR

The Class of 1987 proudly dedicates its yearbook to Ms. Lynne Salvador. Over the past few years, she has done so much for us, as our 10th Grade Class Adviser, as our teacher, and as our friend. Through her caring, she has taught us to grow into strong individuals and students. The Class of 1987 would like to thank Ms. Salvador for all she has done and to show her our appreciation by dedicating this, our 1987 Climber, to her.

INTRODUCTION

Since our early years as students, we have all aspired to be great things—great sons and daughters, great friends, great students, great firemen, nurses, and teachers. Though our aspirations have changed, our desire for greatness never ceased.

The Class of 1987 will graduate as a class of scholars, athletes, and artists, but — most of all — as a class of believers: believers in the reality of the great things we can, and will, be.

TO THE CLASS OF 1987:

For the Class of 1987, I suggest that persistence be considered as a valuable method to employ in attempting to accomplish goals. The person who stands out must have a certain tenacity.

An assistant, once asked by Thomas Edison to perform an experiment, failed four or five times. When a friend suggested that he give up, the assistant replied, "Mr. Edison did not say to try the job four or five times, he said to do it."

As you graduate from West Bridgewater High School, think of the number of times you came back to "try again." Certainly, you will remember successes that occurred on the fourth or fifth attempt. Just as the dawn follows the darkness, success is often just around the corner from failure. If there are times in your life that you do not succeed, be persistent. Chances are, you will succeed.

It is a privilege for me to serve as the Superintendent of Schools in West Bridgewater. I have enjoyed working with you and my best wishes go with every member of the Class of 1987.

Ronald P. Gerhart Superintendent of Schools

Central Office Secretaries: Mrs. Josselyn, Mrs. English, Ms. Smeglin.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Seated: Mr. Conin, Mrs. Santry, Chairman, Mr. Kennedy; Standing: Mr. Travers, Mr. Curnutte; Not Shown: Mrs. Miller.

HIGH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1987

Congratulations upon your successful completion of your secondary school education. The collaborate effort of your teachers and administrators should have prepared you to mobilize the knowledge, skills and techniques needed to achieve rewarding and successful life experiences.

It is our wish that the opportunities provided during your secondary schooling will be beneficial in helping fulfill your aspirations during your post-secondary years.

I am especially impressed with the cooperation you have demonstrated to your teachers, advisors, administrators and in particular your piers.

May the strategies you have acquired enrich your endeavors as you undertake a new life style.

As you are asked to meet challenges and demands as a democratic way of life, I sincerely wish you success and happiness.

Thank you for your support and contribution to West Bridgewater Jr. Sr. High School

S. Erick Benson Principal

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

To The Class Of 1987:

You are the living proof of the perceptive statement. "If you believe, you can achieve!" You have learned that there is no substitute for hard work and that it is always rewarding and worthwhile to do your best.

There are many things we planned to teach you, many areas of the curriculum we strove to develop, but you have surpassed our expectations by learning not only all that, but also the values we tried to impart.

We hope that your years of diligence have given you essential life skills. We know that as you construct knowledge about your world, you will develop effective strategies as productive, independent adults. Lessons you have learned here will be helpful in the future, but more critical learning will come as you interact in the world.

You have done well here, in this environment where you have been encouraged and supported. We know you will do well as you prepare for the challenges that come with living in a world which is growing and changing. We know that you will seize every opportunity to grow and change with it.

We are proud of you. We share your dreams and hopes. The future is yours.
